Subject: Complaint on False Allegations and Request for Protection

Dear Assistant Chief,

I, Eugene Ochung, a resident of this location for the past 30 years, respectfully write to seek your urgent intervention regarding false statements that have been made against me, alleging that I am a criminal linked to gangs.

Circumstantial evidence suggests that this misinformation is being spread by some of your assistants. However, I am not certain whether they are doing so under your instructions or on their own initiative.

These allegations are untrue, malicious, and defamatory, and they have caused serious damage to my reputation, exposed me to character assassination and social stigma, and placed me at great risk of mob injustice.

In addition, I have noticed suspicious people following me, which has placed me in unsafe situations and further threatened my security. I believe these actions amount to defamation, harassment, and intimidation, and they expose me to imminent danger.

I wish to make it clear that I am a law-abiding citizen, and I am open to any form of lawful investigation your office may deem necessary.

While I fully understand that security is paramount, I must also affirm that as a citizen, I am entitled to protection under the law:

1. The Constitution of Kenya, 2010 guarantees every person the right to dignity (Article 28), freedom and security of the person (Article 29), the right to privacy and reputation (Article 31), and the right to a fair hearing (Article 50).
2. The Penal Code, Section 194 criminalizes the publication of false statements intended to injure the reputation of another.
3. The Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR), Article 12 protects individuals from unlawful attacks on their honour and reputation.

In view of the above, I respectfully request your urgent intervention to ensure that these defamatory statements are stopped, that I am not unlawfully followed or harassed, and that my safety and rights as a citizen are protected.

I further wish to state that some of your assistants should not abuse their office by spreading false allegations and intimidating law-abiding residents like myself. Such conduct not only violates my rights but also undermines the integrity of public administration.

It has now reached a point where I am contemplating filing a formal police complaint. Furthermore, if anything happens to me, I will be left with no choice but to hold some of your assistants personally liable for their actions and the danger they have exposed me to.

I deeply respect the authority and role of both the Chief and the Assistant Chief in maintaining peace and order. It is in that spirit of respect and trust in your office that I seek your protection and fairness in handling this matter.

Thank you for your urgent attention.

Yours faithfully,

(Signature)
